Del Toro Silver Corp. DTOR.OB

Del Toro Silver Corp. (DTOR.OB) is a dynamic mining company, primarily focused on historic gold mining districts in the state of California and the western USA. The company is targeting historical high grade gold properties that offer near term production potential at relatively low development and operating costs.

The Gold Rush

The Marshall discovery of gold at Sutter's Mill in 1848 started the California gold rush. When the news spread through the US the rush began. Americans from all over the country joined their compatriots from California and headed for the foothills of the Sierra Nevada.
