Yes Virginia there is a Santa!

It was a family ritual around Christmas time every year her mom would ask little Crystal what she wanted from Santa. Little Crystal would repeat the same wish each year, she would say, Mommy 'I want to play with a boy'. It was getting harder and harder for her mum to bear, she would feel so helpless and some time she would cry.

Cry no more Mom! Crystal said, at 24 Crystal was not a little girl anymore. This year was different she could feel in the fresh arctic air. Santa was up to something, We all know, around Christmas time things get really hectic for Santa and gifts and wishes some time get mixed up.

We would never know, however, the real reason behind Santa's thinking, perhaps he wanted to be a little more generous, after all Crystal believed and waited for 24 years.

This year Crystal was amazed and surprised as she opened the 'package' , her eyes welled up, she could barely contain, between sobs and tears some how she managed to look, and there it was! it was not just a boy, it was a Play Boy. Congrats Hefner!
